

Privacy Policy

Thasmai Trust respects the privacy rights of visitors to our website and mobile application and is committed to protecting those rights. To support this commitment, we have adopted this Privacy Policy that governs how we collect, use, disclose, update and protect the information you provide online to our Trust. Please read this carefully and consent the Privacy Policy before you use the website and application.

Information Collection and Use

We collect and use your information below to provide, understand, and improve our Services.

What Types of Information Does Thasmai Trust Collect about visitors?

- Personal Information - “Personal Information” is information that identifies you as an individual or relates to an identifiable individual, including: full name, email address, gender, date of birth, marital status, relationship details, phone number, postal address, telephone number. If you submit any Personal Information relating to other people to us or to our service providers in connection with the Sites, you represent that you have the authority to do so and to permit us to use the information in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
- Personal health information - ‘Personal Health information’ is identifying information about an individual relating to their physical or mental health (including medical history). This is a voluntary action if an individual wishes to share his well being experience before and after practicing the SMS meditation
- Payment/Financial Institute Information - You may provide us with payment information, on Bank Account Details and billing address when you register for a program or make a donation. These details are used for one-time processing.
- Other Information - “Other Information” is any information that does not reveal your specific identity or does not directly relate to an identifiable individual. This might include, for instance, browser and device information; App usage data; information collected through cookies, pixel tags, and other technologies; demographic information and other information provided by you; or aggregated information . We use this information to facilitate our operation of the Sites and for other purposes described below.

- IP Address - Your “IP Address” is a number that is automatically assigned to the computer that you are using by your Internet Service Provider (ISP). An IP Address may be identified and logged automatically in our server log files or third party tools that we use whenever you access the Sites, along with the time of the visit and the page(s) that you visited. Collecting IP Addresses is standard practice and is done automatically by many websites, applications and other services. Thasmai Trust uses IP Addresses to calculate usage levels of the Sites, help diagnose problems with its servers, administer the Sites, and monitoring the regions from which you navigate to the Foundation’s websites.

How Does Thasmai Trust Collect Information?

Personal Information - We collect Personal Information through the website (when you register first time for Thasmai Star Life) and through mobile application while enrolling for SMS Meditation.

If you provide your telephone number online, you will receive telephone notifications through mobile applications on meditation related blogs, videos , upcoming programs and events.

Security

We take standard allowable business mechanisms to protect information about you that is in our possession and control, such as your Personal Information from loss, misuse, and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. Unfortunately, no Internet transmission is ever completely secure or error-free. In particular, email sent between you and us may not be secure, due, for instance, to the security practices that you, your email carrier, and/or Internet provider employ. You should therefore take special care in deciding what information you send to us via email. Please keep this in mind when disclosing any personal data to us via the Internet.

When we request certain types of sensitive information, such as health or financial information, they will be performed using a secure server. Other transactions regarding sensitive information will also be performed using a secure server.

Global Operations

To bring you our services, we operate globally. Where the laws of your country allow you to do so, you authorize us to transfer, store, and use your data in the United States, Canada and any other country where we operate. In some of the countries to which we transfer personal data, the privacy and data protection laws and rules regarding when government authorities may access data may vary from those of your country.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. The most current version of the policy will govern our use of your information and will always be at website's privacy policy section. By continuing to access or use the Services after those changes become effective, you agree to be bound by the revised Privacy Policy.

Effective: July 17, 2024
